

The most important thing for article publication:

- 1. No AI content
- 2. Plagiarism should be less than 15%.
- 3. Even if its review paper, at least some work must be carried out by the authors

Publication windows for 16th ICMPC and how to upload

1. AMPT: This publication window is closed now

2. Scientific.net (4 journals): This window is open for submission. If you are interested to submit, kindly send mail to icmpc-hyd@griet.ac.in. We will issue one invitation through editorial system, and you will receive one mail with a link to submit paper. In the mail, please tell how many papers you are planning to submit i.e 1 or 2. To this ICMPC mail, please suggest at least 2 potential reviewers for your article.

3. E3S: This window is also open. If you are interested to submit paper, you need to send the full paper, both in word and PDF format to conference mail ID. Once you receive acceptance mail, you need to register.

Windows that will open in Jan 2023 are AMPT, IJIDeM and Cogent
